CROWNING TURF TRIUMPH

Exterminator Adds to His Laurels by Winning Pimlico Cup.

Duplicates His Success of Last Year in Same Race and Establishes New Track Record.

BALTIMORE, Md., November 12.—Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Exterminator scored the crowning triumph of his honorable career in winning the two mile and a quarter Pimlico Cup this afternoon. This five-year-old gelded son of McGee—Fair Empress has accomplished some smashing deeds since he sprung into thoroughbred prominence in the running of the Kentucky Derby in 1918, and throughout the current season has been running races that have caused students of the sport to marvel at his endurance under weight, but none of his efforts has ranked with his accomplishment of today. Beginning alertly under the handling of Buddy Ensor, Exterminator followed close to the early leaders from the start under heavy restraint, went to the front on the backstretch in the second time round and outgamed J. K. L. Ross' Boniface in a thrilling drive. Keogh, astride the Ross racer, challenged Exterminator in the stretch. Down to the winning line the pair came as a team, with the Kilmer colors next to the rail. Fifty yards from the end Exterminator appeared like a beaten horse, for Boniface and come to the clinch with more apparent reserve power, but that great heart which beats under the girths of the McGee gelding would not be denied and he managed to poke his nose out in front just as the pair slid across the line, while Boniface tired perceptibly in the last strides. Ral Parr's Paul Jones ran third to Exterminator and Boniface. Donnacona, Mad Hatter, Damask and The Trout completed the field.

Exterminator's victory in the Pimlico Cup duplicated his success of last year, when, with 121 pounds up, he ran the distance in the mud in 4:13. Today he made the distance over a fast track in 3:53, thus clipping twenty seconds off the record for the course. His package today was 126 pounds, two pounds over his scale weight and top weight of all which opposed him. Exterminator gave Boniface twelve pounds on the scale.

Max Hirsch's Be Frank came back to the races and ran away from Dr. Clark and Belario among others of a shifty band which went to the post in the mile and eighth Woodbury Handicap.

Today's sport brought to a close a most successful fall meeting, marked by brilliant racing between the best horses in the country.

R. J. Baker shipped three head from Belmont Park to Bowie for A. Blakeley yesterday.

Harry Nelson leaves for the coast tonight. He will meet his father, judge Francis Nelson, at San Antonio and proceed with him to San Diego. The elder Mr. Nelson, who will act as presiding steward at Tijuana next winter, leaves his home in Toronto Sunday night.

Ben Beach will ship Lady Granite, the remnant of the J. H. Loucheim string, to Bowie and after that meeting will himself return to Buffalo for the winter.

A shipment of thoroughbreds leaves Mt. Washington station Sunday for Havana. Included in the list will be the horses of B. B. Rice, J. W. Pangle, W. Shrewbridge, George Sherman, R. D. Carter, W. J. Daly and F. J. Kearns.

Dr. F. W. Ashe will be at Bowie Monday to accept entries for the stakes to be run at Oriental Park next winter. Monday is the closing day for the stakes.

T. Taylor, whose plater Link Boy was shipped to New Orleans a week ago with J. J. Randolph's Cobalt Lass and Archie Alexander, will leave for a short visit to his home in Missouri after the Bowie meeting.

J. H. McDonald shipped the W. R. Tolmie horses to New Orleans tonight.

LESSONS OF THE ENDURANCE CONTEST

(BY EXILE.)

LEXINGTON, Ky., November 12.—A few days ago I talked with Will Woodard, who had charge of the thoroughbred horses which took part in the recent Remount endurance test. He told me that he had learned much from this, his first experience. He considers that only horses of size and strength, those well able to carry weight, are of any use, hence the necessity of weight-carrying ability in racing. Mr. Woodard also said, "It is only the well-mannered horse, one well able to pick his way, which will do for the army. The sprinter is almost invariably of erratic temperament and his worth therefore for military purposes nil. The stayer is, in the main, more sober, sedate and also better able to handle weight over the longer distances where weight alone really tells."

These few findings alone are well worthy of much thought and deliberation on the part of the racing powers that be. Remember the old Wykemist motto, "Manners mayketh man." Manners also maketh horses for cavalry purposes. Manners, coupled with soundness, agility, strength and docility, and this the reason of the necessity, to a certain extent, of the elimination of the present excess of two-year-olds and sprint racing, to the encouragement of weight-for-age racing over cup courses.

TIJUANA RACING CERTAIN

J. W. Coffroth Wires That Meeting Will Positively Begin on Thanksgiving Day.

There is some competition over horses for the three winter race meetings to begin Thanksgiving Day, although there are plenty of horses for all. Stories are in circulation about Tijuana not opening that day. These tales are mere propaganda, not true and not reliably circulated. The Tijuana meeting will begin as scheduled. There are already between 400 and 500 horses at Tijuana or on their way there.

Nine of the Tijuana stakes close Friday, November 26. These stakes are:

San Francisco Handicap, three-year-olds and over, one mile and seventy yards; $2,500 added.

Mexicali Handicap, three-year-olds and over, one mile and seventy yards; $2,500 added.

Tijuana Business Men's Handicap, three-year-olds and over, one mile and a sixteenth; $2,500 added.

Far West Handicap, three-year-olds and over, three-quarters of a mile; $2,000 added.

San Ysidro Claiming Stakes, three-year-olds and over, one mile and a sixteenth; $1,500 added.

Juvenile Stakes, two-year-olds, half mile; $1,500 added.

Oakland Claiming Stakes, three-year-olds and over, three-quarters of a mile; $1,500 added.

Riverside Handicap, three-year-olds and over, one mile; $1,500 added.

Speed Handicap, three-year-olds and over, five and a half furlongs; $1,500 added.

The eight other and more valuable stakes of the meeting will close December 11 and are as follows:

Coffroth Handicap, three-year-olds and over, one and a quarter miles; $20,000 added.

U. S. Grant Hotel Handicap, three-year-olds and over, one and an eighth miles; $10,000 added.

Baja California Handicap, three-year-olds and over, one and a sixteenth miles; $10,000 added.

Tijuana Derby, three-year-ols, one and an eighth miles; $5,000 added.

San Diego Business Men's Handicap, three-year-olds and over, one and a sixteenth miles; $5,000 added.

Tijuana Futurity, two-year-olds, four and a half furlongs; $5,000 added.

Tijuana Cup Handicap, three-year-olds and over, two miles; $5,000 added.

Los Angeles Highweight Handicap, three-year-olds and over, three-quarters mile; $2,500 added

Francis Nelson of Toronto will preside over the racing at Tijuana. He will choose his own assistants and direct the sport of the meeting in a general way. There is no more competent man in racing today than he.

Manager J. W. Coffroth wired Daily Racing Form last night as follows: "I have received word that some one is circulating a report that the meeting here may not open Thanksgiving Day. I wish you would give publicity to the fact that 500 horses are at the track and that the meeting will positively open as scheduled under my management. From all indications it should be the biggest meeting ever held in California."

END OF KENTUCKY RACING

Louisville Cup and Golden Rod Handicap Big Attractions of Closing Program.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., November 12.—The Kentucky racing season of 1920 will come to an end tomorrow at Churchill Downs with the running of the Louisville Cup and the Golden Rod Handicap, the stake attractions of an excellent closing day program. In the Cup event nine of the best long-distance racers in the West will meet. Pif Jr. and Minto II., which finished first and second respectively in the Latonia Cup, are expected to figure prominently in tomorrow's race. However, Pif Jr. will not have the same advantage in weights that he had in the Latonia race when he carried 106 pounds. Tomorrow he will shoulder 118 pounds, while Minto II. carries 124. Both are in fine condition and ready for the race of their lives. Sands of Pleasure, Legal, Sterling, Beaverkill, War Spirit, Dresden and Travesty make up the remainder of the field.

Ten two-year-olds of good class will clash in the Golden Rod Handicap, which is at seven-eighths of a mile. They are well matched and should provide a sterling contest.

The Seelbach Hotel Handicap, a supplementary feature, will attract more than passing interest. Much speed is represented among the probable starters and a fast run race should result.

A great crowd is expected at Churchill Downs tomorrow to see the final day's sport and bring to a close the most successful season in the history of Kentucky racing.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

R. A. Smith will take four yearlings to Tijuana in addition to his older racers Irish Kiss, Slippery Elm, Madrono, Benevolent and Ultra Gold.

There recently died in Paris, George Arnaud, the great French banker and breeder and owner of thoroughbreds. Among other good horses M. Arnaud bred the phenomenal jumper and flat racer of this year, Coq. Gaulois.

Duke Michael was destroyed October 12 at J. Reid Walker's stud at Joristown, County Westmeath, Ireland. During his two-year-old career Duke Michael won the Champagne Stakes at Doncaster and the $20,000 Great Lancashire Breeders' Produce Stakes at Liverpool.

The leading rider of England, Stephen Donoghue, has signed a contract to ride for Lord Derby's stable next year. Donoghue has ridden about 145 winners to date and is second to Carslake in percentage. Donoghue is an Irishman and Carslake an Australian. So is Bullock, who ranks with them.

FRENCH WINNERS OF PRESENT YEAR

Up to the middle of October the list of French winning owners was headed by M Eknayan, with fifty-eight victories, representing $163,079, followed by Baron E. de Rothschild, with forty-eight races and $159,730. Baron de Rothschild was the most successful breeder, with $110,600, and O'Neill led the jockeys with 113 wins, a margin of thirty-two victories over his nearest rival, A. Sharpe.

BOWIE'S ARMY RACE FEATURE

Second Maryland Military Race to Be Run on November 26.

BALTIMORE, Md., November 12.—November 26 has been fixed as the day for the running at Prince George Park, Bowie, of the military race, with officers of the United States army riding in uniform while a couple of general officers watch from the stewards' stand. This will be one of the features of the meeting, which begins Saturday to run through to the end of the month. It will be marked by the distribution among horsemen of a matter of $130,000 to $150,000.

The race was arranged at a conference between Colonel Frank Spear Armstrong, Colonel Stanley Koch and Major A. A. Cederwald of the Remount Service of the regular army and Major C. P. Chandler, the officer who rode Le Gardon to victory in the military race at Laurel Park, and Joseph McLennan, clerk of the course of the Southern Maryland Agricultural Association. The distance is to be seven furlongs, the purse $1,500 and the competing horses will be animals owned either by the War Department or by officers of the army Except as to the distance, these were the conditions of the Laurel military race. The distance of the Bowie race was fixed at seven furlongs because there is a backstretch extension at Bowie which permits of the running of races of seven furlongs around only one turn.

Major Stanley Koch, the rider of the winner of the army endurance race in New England, Mlle. Denise, will be one of the officers participating in the military race. Major Chandler, the army's polo champion, will be another. General Adelbert Cronkite, commander of the Seventh Corps, whose headquarters are in Baltimore, and General S. D. Rockenback, commander of the Tank Corps at Camp Meade, will be the officiating stewards. It is not improbable that the mount of Colonel Koch will be the veteran plater Hong Kong, which was purchased by the army the other day through Lieutenant Thomas McCrerry, a veteran trainer of thoroughbreds, who is now in the Remount Service.

MARYLAND JOCKEY CLUB VIEW

Secretary W. P. Riggs Explains Club's Stand in the Shilling Controversy.

BALTIMORE, Md., November 12.—W. P. Riggs, secretary of the Maryland Jockey Club, gave out the following statement today in reference to the Shilling case:

"The Maryland Jockey Club is under no duty to intervene in any efforts of ex-jockey Shilling to secure reinstatement.

"The autumn meeting was advertised to be held under the auspices of the Maryland Racing Commission, The Jockey Club and National Steeplechase and Hunt Association and licensed with that understanding. Horse owners, trainers, jockeys, officials and others participated with that understanding. The Maryland Jockey Club was advised and believed it was bound to exhaust its powers to have that understanding fulfilled and, of course, will obey the rulings of the commission, unless to do so would violate obligations entered into with the approval of the commission.

"Summarily, to reinstate Shilling at Pimlico would have constituted a violation of the rules of racing that threatened to involve all innocent participants in the meeting. In consequence the Maryland Jockey Club was bound to exhaust its lawful powers of resistance before submitting to superior force.

"This is all the Maryland Jockey Club has done and constitutes its only interest in the controversy, which it deplores."

TWO-YEAR-OLD RACING AT TIJUANA

Many of the 1921 Crop to Begin Their Careers at the Lower California Track

SAN DIEGO, Cal., November 12.—The two-year-old is going to play an important role in the coming winter racing season at Tijuana, which commences on Thanksgiving Day. Every eastern reservation brings word that the present yearling is among the invading stock and with the number of western juveniles on hand some splendid competition should result.

President James W. Coffroth, in his distribution of stakes, had the two-year-old in mind and a Tijuana Futurity of $5,000 and the Juvenile Stakes, worth $1,500, have been set aside for the exclusive running of the two-year-old. A large patronage has been received for both stakes from the horsemen and more stakes may be added for this age after the meeting commences.

Considerable interest has been aroused in the two-year-old racing out West because of the near-by debut of the progeny of George Wingfield's Atheling II. on the American turf. Much has been written about the splendid looking stock that has been shipped here by Wingfield and there are those who believe they will run right up to their looks. The Atheling II. progeny carry all the markings of their English daddy and are large of bone and muscle; in fact, larger than any that have been produced in this western country.

Interest in the Wingfield stock has been increased, too, because some of their dams have had proud racing careers of their own out West and which are to be represented for the first time. Thistle Belle, Gladiola, Celesta, Roselawn, Scarlet Oaks, Envy, Maid of Avon, Anna May and Alice Carey are some which will have their offspring go to the races.

More Enfield, Honeywood, Sigurd, Gladwin and General Roberts two-year-olds will go to the races. Irish Exile, a son of Cunard, will have six colts. Two-year-olds from Texas and Missouri will arrive by the carload, while many of the more fashionably bred eastern two-year-olds are also on the way.

J. B. JOELS' STUD IN SOUTH AFRICA

J. B. Joel is starting to breed thoroughbreds in South Africa, and recently cabled out to buy a suitable stud farm, to which all mares he owns out there will in due course be sent, reinforced by mares from England. His young stallion, Polyscope, 6, by Polymelus—Sundrop, by Sundridge, when his racing career is ended, will be given his chance at the stud.

American Ace Runs Out When Seeming to Be Winning—Fair Orient an Easy Winner.

(BY J. L. DEMPSEY.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., November 12.—A forceful reminder that winter has reached these parts was present at Churchill Downs track, for the racing this afternoon was under decided winter conditions and the large gathering on hand, had to circulate freely to avoid freezing. The card was framed on the consolation order, with a view to excluding stars and enabling the medium grade to earn purses. Owners fitted in thoroughly with the designs, for with the exception of the three-quarters dash and the mile and a sixteenth race there was a conspicuous absence of good class horses. The sport, however, did not suffer to any appreciable extent, for the well-matched starters brought about some of the best racing of the present meeting, several of the finishes being of the hair-line variety, with the winners in doubt until the judges had displayed their verdict.

The speculatively inclined were again somewhat off in their calculations and most of those substantially supported proved dismal failures. The offenders in this respect were Sam Reh in the initial dash, Bygone Days in the second, American Ace in the third and Miss Fontaine in the fourth.

The three-quarters dash brought with it the outstanding incident of the afternoon's racing and was caused by American Ace. He was a confidently supported odds-on favorite and, after showing a fine flight of early speed, began running out when approaching the stretch turn and also forced out Col. Taylor and Panaman. All three of the horses suffered extensively through it and it enabled Louis A. and Dr. Carmen to race into the lead and fight it out for the purse, Louis A. winning handily. Panaman landed in third place and but for the interference he suffered from would in all probability have won.

R. L. Baker's Fair Orient landed the handicap under claiming conditions that had some fair platers among its starters. He won in easy style after indulging Marse John with the lead until straightened for the stretch drive. Marse John, after his early exhaustive effort, managed to hold on just long enough to withstand the belated rush of Dresden.

TRAINER PERKINS SADDLES TWO WINNERS.

Trainer Perkins, who saddled Fair Orient, also saddled the winner of the opening race in the M. Moore-owned Honor Man. Pool rode him with the same good measured skill that he rode Fair Orient and it was a valuable factor in their success.

Bygone Days, which Milo Shields recently acquired by private purchase, was an intended "good thing" in the second race. But he failed to earn a part of the purse, George J. Long's colors being successful for the first time at the meeting when Tribune won under hard riding from Castlereagh and Eleanor S.

The fifteen youngsters in the fourth race furnished the most spectacular finish seen here at this meeting. Planet, grouped with others in the field, Brown Check and Miss Fontaine landing inches apart after one of the most strenuous drives noted. Planet was given the verdict, but Brown Check was best in the race and would have reversed the order in another stride.

Pirate McGee was the first favorite of the afternoon that rewarded his backers' confidence and his victory was achieved in easy fashion over Gourmand and Candle Light.

The Nephew, owned by Marshall Bros., went to Gruber & Borgman for $2,000. Day Lilly was taken for $2,000 by F. St. John and Gourmand was secured by M. Rieser for $1,700.

Paris Maid completed the woes of the favorite backers when she brought up in the rear of Kimpalong in the final race. Roberts, who rode her, showed poor judgment in allowing her to make an exhaustive effort to come from far in the rear and displace the leaders in the space of a short distance and it left her without reserve speed to resist Kimpalong's rush in the last eighth.

Gruber & Borgman, represented in the last race by St. Just, claimed Lady Mountjoy for $2,200.

Julius Reeder was advised this afternoon by general manager Eddy of the New Orleans Fair Grounds track that all owners having made application for stall room through Mr. Reeder had been granted their reservations.

The program book for the first eight days of the Jefferson Park meeting was distributed to owners here this afternoon.

Went to post at 3:04. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. EXTERMINATOR raced under a choking pull behind DONNACONA for a mile and a quarter, then took the lead, but had to do his best at the end to outstay BONIFACE in a thrilling stretch duel. BONIFACE, also under a pull for the first mile and a half, got to the winner in the stretch, but was tiring in the last strides. PAUL JONES ran a game race, but finished a distant third. DONNACONA set a good pace, but tired after going two miles. MAD HATTER tired and quit badly. DAMASK was never close up. THE TROUT was hopelessly outclassed.
